

Half Moon Bay
Saturday 2015 April 11

I think I've found a Cypress Tree!

Yes, it certainly looks like the White Oak Bayou variety of Cypress Tree

It smells like the genuine thing!

It tastes like the genuine thing!

I think it deserves a special name....

Frankie...in remembrance of one of the previous owners of this precious triangle of land.
Now onto the other trees.....

And a very heartfelt and warm thanks to the busy squirrels who planted these wonderful trees!
